PARDON ME FOR NOT GETTING UP

Oh dear, if you're reading this right now,
I must have given up the ghost.
I hope you can forgive me for being
Such a stiff and unwelcoming host.
Just talk amongst yourself my friends,
And share a toast or two.
For I am sure you will remember well
How I loved to drink with you.
Don't worry about mourning me,
I was never easy to offend.
Feel free to share a story at my expense
And we'll have a good laugh at the end.

PRECIOUS MEMORIES

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Daryl Jenkins, born in Houston, Texas, on July 20, 1968, to Oliver and Joynell Jenkins. Daryl, the second of three brothers, was a man whose spirited journey was defined by his Baptist faith learned here at South Union Missionary Baptist Church and a deep commitment to his community.

Daryl attended schools of education starting from Foster, Bastion elementaries to Cullen middle, up to a year at Jack Yates H.S. just to finish it all up at the Mighty Jesse H. Jones H.S. Then it was off to further his studies at Devry Technology University in Dallas, Tx., where he thrived for years before venturing back home to Houston.

Daryl was much more than just a hardworking individual — he was a devoted father, cherished by his two beautiful children, Donovan and Dayton. Though life presented him with challenges, including health and the dissolution of his marriage, his love for his children remained steadfast and true, forming the cornerstone of his life.

As a consummate worker in the warehouse industry, Daryl exemplified dedication and resilience. His colleagues admired him not just for his work ethic, but for his ability to find joy in the little things. Outside of his professional life, Daryl's passion for life shone brightly through his various hobbies. He found great fulfillment from tending to his beloved pet dogs and nurturing his love for landscaping and enjoyed spending time indulging in his favorite karate flicks, adding a splash of excitement to his downtime. He also had a unique flair for creativity, demonstrated through his talent in macrame. The warm aroma of BBQ drifting from his backyard was a signature component of family gatherings and community events alike, bringing everyone together in laughter and good cheer.

Daryl's kindness and generosity have left an indelible mark on the hearts of those who knew him and spent time with him. His ability to help others first, coupled with his vibrant sense of humor, forged lifelong friendships and made even the simplest of moments feel extraordinary.

Daryl is survived by his son and daughter, Donovan and Dayton; ex love, Katrina; his two brothers; Oliver Jr. and Victor and the newest addition to the family, grandson, Donovan Jr.; as well as a multitude of friends and extended family members whose lives he touched in so many ways.

As we mourn the loss of a remarkable man, we also celebrate the legacy of love, laughter, and light he imparted on all who were fortunate enough to know him. In this time of sorrow, let us remember Daryl not with tears of sadness but with smiles of gratitude for the time we shared with him and the love he fostered in our lives.
